

Drama and Theatre Studies

Subject content

The course is comprised of three components;

- Component One includes the study of two set plays and the analysis and evaluation of the work of live theatre makers.
- Component Two involves creating and performing the devised drama.
- Component Three involves practical exploration and interpretation of three script extracts from different plays, one of which is performed as a final assessed piece.

AQA Drama and Theatre Studies course specifications

[<http://filestore.aqa.org.uk/resources/drama/specifications/AQA-7262-SP-2016.PDF>]

Specific entry requirements

GCSE Grade 4 or above in Drama or equivalent performance-based qualification or experience.

Learning methods

You will learn through discussions, independent research, group work, practical performance and audience feedback.

Assessment

Assessment is by a written paper for Component One, performance and working notebook for Component Two and a performance and written report for Component Three.

Progression opportunities

A Level Drama and Theatre Studies will train you from both a practical performance and an academic point of view. Students have gone on to study a range of Higher Education courses, including English, sociology, teaching and degree courses in drama or acting. Many students also enter the professional industry of performing arts.

Last updated: 23rd October 2019

Want to apply?

Visit <https://www.barnsleysixthformcollege.co.uk/apply> to get started
Call us on 01226 216 123