

English Language

Subject content

One component of the course involves the study of language in relation to the individual and society. This includes analysing and comparing a wide variety of texts, and studying children's spoken and written language development from 0-11 years. Another component focuses on wider themes of language diversity and change, with essay-writing about these topics and analysis of texts presenting ideas, attitudes and opinions about them. There are also opportunities to produce your own writing about language topics and ideas. In addition there is a more individual element where you will produce your own data-based language investigation, based on independent research, and a piece of original writing with a commentary. AQA English Language course specifications

[<http://filestore.aqa.org.uk/resources/english/specifications/AQA-7701-7702-SP-2015.PDF>]

Specific entry requirements

GCSE grade 5 or above in English Language

Assessment

This subject will be assessed by external examination and coursework (the language investigation).

Progression opportunities

An A Level in English Language is valued by both Higher Education establishments and employers, since it shows a high level of communication skills and the ability to think analytically. Popular career choices include teacher (primary/secondary/further education or Teacher of English as a Foreign Language), speech therapist, lawyer, librarian, journalist, or roles in media and communications.

Last updated: 12th September 2019

Want to apply?

Visit <https://www.barnsleysixthformcollege.co.uk/apply> to get started
Call us on 01226 216 123